SSMPA Endorses Loraine Lundquist for Los Angeles City Council District 12

The Directors of the Santa Susana Mountain Park Association are proud to support Dr. Loraine Lundquist to become Councilmember for Los Angeles City District 12 in the August 13, 2019 run-off election.

SSMPA's mission focuses on conservation, protection, preservation, rational development, and sustainability – values that are urgently needed in local government. These same values precisely coincide with Loraine's personal and professional commitments.

Dr. Lundquist is a scientist, a mother, an educator, and a leader. SSMPA believes she is well prepared to become a highly effective agent of change – the right kind of people-oriented, values-based change that Los Angeles City government needs in our problematic times.

SSMPA urges all residents of Council District 12 who value environmentally-responsible public policies to consider voting for Loraine Lundquist in the August 13th run-off election.
